

CONNECTICUT SCIENCE CENTER TRIP

Brought to you by CONNECTIONS After-School Programs

December 10, 2011

YOU ARE INVITED

Families of CONNECTIONS students are invited to spend a day at the Connecticut Science Center in Hartford, the brand-new 9-story facility featuring a variety of hands-on and fun science displays. We encourage you to join your child in learning, discovering, and exploring together.

LOGISTICS - IMPORTANT INFORMATION

We will be providing transportation on December 10th starting around 11:00 AM from Kelly, Morgan, Peck, and E.N. White Schools.

For family members who cannot make it to any of the schools, a bus will come to pick you up no more than a few blocks away from your home.

Starting at 11:00 AM We will provide a bus schedule the week of the field trip.

Families will be home at 5:00-5:30pm.

Reasonable care will be taken by the supervising personnel to see to the safety of your child. As an accompanying adult, it is your responsibility to assist them in this regard.

AT THE MUSEUM

Families can enjoy an Animation Workshop, hit the virtual slopes with a state of the art Ski Simulator, experience the cosmos, understand the unique physics of sight and sound, and learn how to save the planet and protect the environment. We will also be watching the 3D movie "Wild Ocean" to learn about marine life and the underwater world they live in.
